A Band of Redskins on War Paint Reported.

The Campaign Opened.

DENVER, August 21.—A News Cheyenne special says McNeil the courier leaves for Deadwood and Pierre from Where ever he finds Merritt. He left Merritt at sundown yesterday and he was without escort. Capture of Porter. The latter evidently started for Indian [illegible] the following from Sheriff Kent, of Cheyenne, dated Fort Keogh, August 19th, received by telegraph to Governor Ames:

MILES CAMP, August 19th.

To Governor Ames, Cheyenne, Wyo.:

DEAR SIR:—Your sheriff came to me and stated that you desired to know the situation of affairs here, and requested me to send you a report. I will leave here in the morning with the command for Pine Ridge agency, and will be able to send you a report from there. I will also send a report to the governor of Montana. Hoping you will excuse me for not writing you sooner, I am, yours truly,

NELSON A. MILES,
Brigadier General.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, August 21.

To the Editor of the Tribune:

Dear Sir:—I have just returned from Meeker, and while there I had a conversation with Mr. Kendall, who was the bearer of the following dispatch from Gen. Miles to Gen. West, which he received at Meeker at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst.:

"Headquarters Department of the Platte, Omaha, August 19, 1887.

"General Wesley Merritt, Commanding Department of Dakota, Pine Ridge Agency, S. D.:

"GENERAL:—I have the honor to be directed by the lieutenant general commanding the division to inform you that he has ordered the Fifth cavalry, Colonel Wade commanding, to proceed to Pine Ridge agency by the most practicable route. You will please direct the commanding officer to report his arrival to you, and you will then assume command of the troops at the agency. I have the honor to be, General, very truly yours,

GEO. WEST,
Adjutant General.

Mr. Kendall left Meeker with the dispatch at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst., and reached Glenwood Springs at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the 20th inst., making the distance, 160 miles, in 36 hours. Mr. Kendall is a good horseman, and he had a good horse, but he had to ride him hard to make the time he did. Mr. Kendall informed me that he had no trouble whatever in getting through the Indian country, and that he saw no Indians. He also informed me that he met Gen. Merritt with his command at Rawlins, Wyo., on the 18th inst., en route for the agency. Mr. Kendall also informed me that Gen. Merritt had received a dispatch from Gen. Miles to the effect that he had received information that the Indians were on the war path, and that he had better hurry on to the agency.

Yours truly,

News from Meeker.

DENVER, August 20.—A Times-Tribune special says: A courier named Tom Nevins arrived from Meeker this morning with dispatches to General West. He left Meeker at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and rode the distance, 160 miles, in 36 hours. He says the Indians are all quiet at Meeker and Grand River. The Indians are camped on White river, about 30 miles from Meeker. Nevins passed through the Uncompahgre Indian reservation, and reports that the Indians are all quiet at Meeker and Grand River. He says that Agent Danforth, of the Uncompahgre agency, has gone to Meeker to meet the Indians in council. Nevins says that Danforth will be able to settle all difficulties with the Indians. Nevins says that Agent Danforth has gone to Meeker to meet the Indians in council. Nevins says that Danforth will be able to settle all difficulties with the Indians. Nevins says that Agent Danforth has gone to Meeker to meet the Indians in council. Nevins says that Danforth will be able to settle all difficulties with the Indians.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE ALLEGED WAR.

The time has come for very plain speaking about the alleged Ute war. It is evident that the Indians not only did not intend an outbreak but can hardly be driven into one. Certain unscrupulous white men about Meeker expect military and political gain from the excitement they have caused. Their game will succeed very barely if at all. Conflicting reports have been sent from Meeker and Kendall's camp with the most calamitous statements, so that the people of the state for the first two or three days believed at least there was danger. But when the danger that was so imminent did not material ze there began to be a suspicion that the lying stories were sent out with a purpose. Kendall's terrible fights proved to be bloodless while up to the present writing there has not been a well authenticated story of a single war like act committed by a single Indian during the present excitement. Perhaps the publication of extracts from a private letter received in this city, showing how the sensible, fair-minded people of Meeker look at this affair, will give the best idea of the situation. The letter is from a very reliable man and is dated August 14th. He says:

"I fear we are only on the edge of our trouble. Yet I trust not. We the whites are so utterly and palpably in the wr— But I can say nothing but do my duty, whatever there may fall to me. I am off into the Flat Tops to-night unless the news comes to stop me. I saw Indians on my trip yesterday, but had no difficulty. I think they were really as much scared as I was which was a comfort and turned to our mutual advantage. That utter ass—de, Kendall, is at the bottom of the whole. * * * I can assure you my hands is not in this work, but blood is thicker than water and I shall stay with it until the end."

This is the opinion of a brave man on the ground who does not think his duty but knows his side is in the wrong. It's [illegible] Die now that the presence of the soldiers at Meeker and the fourth campaign of Sheriff Kendall may sufficiently [illegible] that they will not [illegible] they must take the offensive. If they do, the promoters of this war have an awful responsibility. Governor Adams has [illegible] to [illegible] He has called out the state troops under a misapprehension. He ought now to prevent their use to make a war certain. He should forbid their use by Sheriff Kendall or any one else except to protect life and property. He should at once apply to the interior department for the immediate removal of the Utes to their reservation and so end the farce which may be a terrible tragedy. The soldiers who left Denver [illegible] of the call of the governor [illegible] a glorious campaign and one which [illegible] be made for the gratification [illegible]

A POLITICAL TRANSITION.

In the [illegible] of Mr. Hobson, which appears in another column of this issue there is a significant suggestion of more than passing interest. If the newly inaugurated programme to make the Hon. John A. Wise, of Virginia, the candidate of the republican party for the office of vice president, Mr. Wise is to stand up manfully on the silver question, and it may prove to be the salvation of the party.

The union of all the operatives of the Pennsylvania railroad into one assembly of Knights of Labor is a formidable move. The Denver & Rio Grande strike two years ago illustrates this. Had there been a similar organization on the Denver & Rio Grande then the strikers were strong enough to have had a strike among train men and engineers. The strikers were clearly wrong in their demands. The engineers and brakemen saw this and refused to go out. This they could do [illegible] As a result the strike did not prevent the operation of the road and so diminished inconvenience the public or [illegible] greatly the earnings. But had the engineers and brakemen belonged to the same organization as the strikers the effects would have been far different. Such an organization would put the railroads and the public completely at the mercy of the operatives. This is not a good state of affairs, but some most of the strikes are not based on reasonable demands. This union on the Pennsylvania road will not last long. But it may last long enough to bring on a strike which will be settled only with the [illegible]

A Nice Case.

NEW YORK, August 20.—A disgusting scene from the tenement of Charles Street for the past few days, and yesterday it grew so bad Mrs Franklin, the housekeeper, notified the police. She believed the smell came from a decaying pile of garbage in rooms on the second [illegible] occupied by Mrs Mariana Lavell and her daughter Anna. On Monday last the women had been seen closing the shutters, and it was thought they had gone into the country. A report to the police brought no response, and this afternoon the stench was so strong as why they [illegible] Mr Hanneman the owner of the house, decided to investigate. He got out on the fire escape and peered through the shutters into the women's room. He saw both women lying dead on the bed, which was besprinkled with [illegible] Maggots crawled over the corpses. Horror stricken Hanneman called for the police, and a locksmith drew [illegible] who had opened the door. Disinfectants were [illegible] and when inspection was made. The two women had been [illegible] since Monday. A razor and an empty laudanum bottle were on a chair beside the bed. [illegible] expected by the [illegible] Dobelle and [illegible] to the police. CHURCH SERVICES AND SUNDAY SCHOOL.

[illegible] M. E. and Plymouth Congregational, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. [illegible] pastor.

Hon. James Rice, secretary of state, married by his wife, registered at The Antlers yesterday.

Rev. G. W. Dysart, of Slater, Mo., will preach this morning at the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

At the First Methodist church Rev. J. to B. G[illegible] of the Congregational church will preach this morning.

Mrs. Matilda Sly, a resident of Colorado City, has filed a plat of her addition to Colorado City with the county clerk.

A marriage license was yesterday issued to Dr. C. [illegible] Conkling of Washington, D. C., and Miss Minnie Kolbe of Philadelphia.

Rev. Richard Montague, pastor elect, will preach at the First Baptist church this morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 3 p. m.

The remains of the man who was found lying dead near the Fountain on Friday were interred in the potter's field at Evergreen cemetery yesterday.

Services at the Congregational church at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor will exchange in the morning with the Rev. A. C. Peck, pastor of the Methodist church.

Rev. W. W. Atterbury a prominent divine of New York city will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church this morning. The pastor Rev. J. S. Black, will preach in the evening.

Mr. D. C. Rose, of Texas, who has been in this city for some time, has decided to locate here permanently and go into business if he can find a suitable location. He showed us a specimen bale of cotton yesterday, and stated that the crop of this staple would be the largest in Texas for several years.

Mr. W. P. [illegible] a prominent Saginaw (Mich.) capitalist, reports a fish story the truth of which he vouches for. He says that Master Ernest Ford, a son of Dr. Ford of Kansas City, caught a trout a few days ago which weighed 6¼ pounds. An old fisherman at the Gap says that it must be at least fifteen years old.

Acting City Marshal Atkinson received a telegram yesterday from the Pueblo authorities to arrest a young man from that city who was a passenger on the northbound Thunderbolt who was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. A description of the man which was contained in the dispatch enabled the marshal to identify him. An officer arrived from Pueblo on the Salt Lake express last evening and took him back to that city on the late train.

Miss Onie Dozier entertained a few of her friends on Friday evening in honor of Miss Dixie Baer, of New Orleans. Those who were present were Miss Dixie Baer, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Samuel Smith, Mrs. N. B. Riley and Mrs. Margaret Riley, of New Orleans, Misses Eva Dixon, Ida Berry, Judie Berry, Lulu Thomas, Mira Thomas, Grace Barnhart, Kittie Peters, Nellie Resick, Nellie Vans, Carrie Stockdale, Retta Wright, Maude Gale, Messrs. R. L. Kelley, H. Moon, H. Stark, O. McReynolds, F. Pearson, L. Ellis, A. Stockdale, A. Wright, and M. Smith, all of Colorado Springs.

Charles H. Thomas, an inventor residing [illegible] has invented what he calls a driving horse car. This car is arranged in compartments, [illegible] in the middle, [illegible] style. The forward part is [illegible] like a butler's pantry, the balance of the car [illegible] as ample accommodations and [illegible] while the rear of the car will be used as a dining room. Every modern appliance has been utilized to make this car a complete success. Parties who are interested in the patent have been visiting our city for the purpose of introducing it on the proposed horse railway. They claim that the line would be the best paying investment in the city also that it would not conflict with the cable in our decision relative to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and that tourists would take excursions from May Day to Manitou without the trouble of taking coaches, etc. A model of this car can be seen at the office of the Colorado Springs Horse Railway.

Messrs. H. C. McCreery and A. H. Whaley went to Denver on Friday to make arrangements for the Pike's Peak excursion to Manitou in connection with the [illegible] which was to be tendered through Mr. J. M. Ellison, Colorado Midland Agent, to Worcester Block Boys of Worcester, Mass. The excursion will take place on Tuesday, September 20th. The ladies will go to Manitou via the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, reaching Colorado Springs at 11 a. m. where they will be received by the Pike's Peak lodge No. 38, and escorted to the Odd Fellows' new and elegant hall. Here a few moments will be given to introductions to ladies and Odd Fellows of the city and to social intercourse. Then will follow a grand banquet tendered to the ladies of the Sovereign Grand Lodge by the members of Pike's Peak lodge and their wives. Addresses of welcome will be delivered by the mayor on behalf of the city of Colorado Springs, and by Dr. T. G. Horn, grand warden of the Grand Lodge of Colorado. After the banquet carriages will be taken for a drive through the principal streets of the city, over the Mesa to Glen Eyrie, through the Garden of the Gods to Rainbow falls, Iron Springs station and other places of interest in and around Manitou. After this trip the ladies will return, reaching Denver at 8 or 9 o'clock in the evening. The ladies will be attended on the excursion by a committee of ladies and gentlemen representing the order of Odd Fellows in this state. This will be the grandest entertainment given in Denver during the session of the Sovereign Grand lodge. The idea is a good one, it being the right by the committee of arrangements that the ladies might find the time dragging a little dull during the business sessions of the Sovereign Grand lodge, and that it would be well to entertain them in some way during that time. Thursday was decided upon as a good day, for it was thought, as it would give the visitors a trip to a delightful mountain resort on a day when there was no parade or [illegible] festivities.

ARRIVALS.
